

Trainee Pastor – Catford site (one year contract)

Full time or part time

Overview of the role

We have an excellent opportunity for the right person to join the staff team at King's Church London. The position is a Trainee Pastor role based at the Catford Site and involves leading one or more ministry areas and training in general church leadership.

The role is a, salaried position, which includes working on Sundays and evenings. Saturdays and Mondays are usually a day off.

We are open to applications from those interested in either a full-time or part-time role. Please make this clear on your application.

We are looking for this person to join us from September 2017 for one year, with the potential for this to become a permanent position after the first year.

What does the role involve?

The responsibilities of this role include (but are not limited to):

- Leading one or more ministry areas
- Helping run our Sunday services
- Participating in leadership meetings
- Providing administrative support for various ministry areas
- Pastoral support for those in the church
- Developing leaders and
- Other ad hoc tasks as and when required

What are we looking for?

The ideal candidate will ideally have a desire to work in a church environment long term.

In addition, our ideal would be that the individual possesses the following:

- Good leadership skills
- Good people skills
- Good communication skills
- A helpful, servant-hearted attitude towards everyone they come into contact with
- Strong administrative and organisational skills
- The ability to work as part of a team and
- Be teachable and willing to learn

On a more general level, we would love to see evidence that the person has a sense of call to ministry and can demonstrate commitment and passion for building King's Church London, as this is core to our values and vision as a Church. We ask that everyone who joins us is able to sign up to our ethos statement and statement of beliefs. If you would like a copy of these, please contact Nigel Mumford in the King's Church offices.

Working for King's Church London

Working for King's Church London is fast paced, busy and fun. Our staff are vital to our effectiveness as a church and we believe in creating a strong team culture that is supportive and inclusive. We work hard and expect the same of our staff and in return we offer an engaging and challenging environment where staff can grow and develop.

King's Church is committed to building both a diverse church and staff team.

How to apply

If you would like to discuss the role in more detail, please call Nigel Mumford in the King's Church offices on 020 3889 6819 or email nigel.mumford@kingschurchlondon.org.

Similarly, if you would like to apply, please email your CV and a covering letter to Nigel at the email address above.

The closing date for applications is Friday 7th July.

Interviews will take place week commencing Monday 17th July.

