

Intern

One year contract

Overview of the role

We have an excellent opportunity for the right person to join the staff team at King's Church London for a one-year internship.

Our internship programme is designed to help identify those that feel they may have a call to work for the Church. You may feel called to full time pastoral ministry, youth work, operational / administrative work, a worship leader or to church leadership.

Our job is to identify those with a sense of call in order to coach, train and equip them as well as giving them an opportunity to work out that calling in a busy and thriving church environment.

This is a full-time or part-time position, depending on the candidate, that could potentially include Sundays

What does the role involve?

The internship will be a great opportunity to spend a year finding out what is involved in working for King's Church London and experiencing life on the excellent King's staff team.

You will be exposed to many differing aspects of church life.

What are we looking for

Our ideal candidate would possess the following:

- A sense of call to work in the church environment
- Good communication skills
- A helpful, servant-hearted attitude towards everyone they come into contact with
- The ability to work as part of a team and
- Be teachable and willing to learn

On a more general level, we would love to see evidence that the person can demonstrate commitment and passion for building King's Church London, as this is core to our values and vision as a Church. We ask that everyone who joins us is able to sign up to our ethos statement and statement of beliefs. If you would like a copy of these, please contact Nigel Mumford in the King's Church offices.
